New Fine Arts Publisher, On Deck Publishing Launches Online Bookstore

San Francisco, California - May 13, 2020

On Deck Publishing announces the opening of its new online book shop located at www.ondeckpublishing.com . Its launch features four works by artist Richard H. Alpert: Warm Water Cove (2015), Transbay Columns (2019), Paseo (2019) and AVE variation #7 (2019).

On Deck Publishing specializes in printing and distributing Fine Art books by contemporary artists. Its collection of Photographic and Conceptual Art works render insights into modern culture and the physical environment. The books are published in limited short run editions with each edition containing 50 to 100 books. Artist signed books are available.

More About Richard H. Alpert

Richard H. Alpert is an American sculptor, abstract filmmaker, and performance artist. He is also known for his work in "Generating Art" and received a National Endowment for the Arts Fellowship Grant in Sculpture in 1979. In 1986 he was nearly killed in a fire that destroyed his studio and much of his artwork. Since then he has continued his creative work with even greater commitment and passion, winning awards and recognition worldwide.
